

Spring Fling, Napa Valley, 2010!

Do we have plans for you! Be There!

We listened to you and by popular demand; ACBS goes back to the Napa Valley for Spring Fling, 2010.

Join us on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, April 9th through the 11th for a fun time in the Valley. Our event hotel is The Embassy Suites in Napa. Some of the activities, planned for you are, A Fantastic Lobster Feast, Wine Tasting, Car Rides, Dinners, Lunches and many many surprises. More information will be coming your way after January 2010, but in the meantime you need to reserve your room. And here is when the fun begins:

We have reserved room at The Embassy Suites, 1075 California Blvd. in Napa and have negotiated for a super rate of 139.00 a night, double occupancy. Call 1-800-EMBASSY or book online at www.napavalley.embassysuites.com and use ACB as your code. The rate includes a cocktail reception in the evening and a full cooked breakfast in the morning. There is also a secluded parking lot in the back for your special car if you choose to bring one. This rate will be honored until March 10th, 2010 after which it will revert to their regular rate, of 249.00 a night. Please call and make your reservations as soon as possible. We have reserved 30 rooms and not sure whether that is enough. Your quick action will let us know if we need to reserve more and if they have any available for us.

Feel free to call or email if any questions.
